20 Die, 114 Injured In Train Crash

RENO, Aug. 14.—Harry Fletcher, Reno captain of detective force, today arrested man with part of his crew who was missing had been arrested for questioning in the wreck of the Southern Pacific streamlined train. The suspect was arrested in the railroad yards at Sparks, Nev. He gave his name as Bob La Ducher, 28, Lewiston, Mont.

RENO, Aug. 14.—The carefully plotted wrecking of a $2,000,000 streamlined train left at least 20 persons dead and 114, including two Canadians, injured today, while police sought a man "with both ears off" for questioning about the tragedy.

The two Canadians, Mrs. Reginald Grubb of Montreal and L. A. Brown of Toronto, suffered painful hurts when the streamliner plowed from the sabotaged track and crashed into a bridge.

Southern Pacific Railway officials said evidence clearly indicated the work was done by a crack west end of the "City of San Francisco" in the desert wastes of central Nevada. Saturday night we determinedly, the two Canadians, just summoned to the scene yesterday found the disaster was caused by a man, rather than by a person or persons unknown.

STREAMLINER JUMPS RAILS; 20 ARE KILLED

Sabotage Blamed for Wreck of Fast Chicago to Frisco Train on the lookout for a man whose car had been cut off.

Police Chief A. L. Welliver of St. Paul, who was informed this train had been "acting suspiciously" at Fernley, and had inquiries yesterday morning at a Fernley garage, "has anything happened?"

The streamliner, speeding westward at 90 to 100 miles an hour, piled up at 10:20 a.m. p.m. about 230 miles east of Reno, as it was crossing the bridge over shallow Humboldt river.

WILD TOPPLE

The diesel-powered car on the crest of the hill took an irregular schedule of 280-mile hours from Chicago to San Francisco, carried across the steel bridge by their own momentum. The car, which had a baggage car lunched out of control and dragged most of the other cars in a wild tangle from the rear.

As an anti-U.S. max the engine of the rescue train caught fire en route to Reno. Outside of more smoke, there were no passengers, no damage resulted.

TRAFFIC RE-ROUTED

Traffic on the highway took up 1,000 feet of the track, which up South Pacific re-routed its traffic over the nearby Western Pacific.

Assistant Division Superintendent Frank C. Williams said the train itself at more than $300,000.

The man "with both ears of war" for questioning about the disaster was a 25-year-old, 25 years old and weighing 135 pounds.

ANGLO-FRENCH EXPAND ARMS IN FAR EAST

Land, Sea and Air Forces Increased Over Japan

By JEAN ALARY

HAVAS NEWS Agency Staff Writer.

PARIS, Aug. 14.—Great Britain and France are strengthening their land, sea and air forces in the Far East. Both countries are meeting at their capitals which might result from adherence by Japan to the Anglo-French alliance.

French military forces in colonial territory have been increased considerably during recent weeks and Great Britain has sent a naval task force to the Suez Canal and Singapore.

The normal native garrison in the French colonies, including North Africa—total about 43,000 effectives, but thousands of reinforcements have been called during the current European situation. At least 100,000 troops are at disposal of military authorities in Indochina.

During the past few days 7,000 troops from the Indian army and Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Sutherland Highlanders arrived at Singapore in addition to a squad of British sailors who had landed at the key Pacific base on Friday.

The aircraft carrier Eagle and 13 other British naval vessels are due at Singapore this week.

FIREMEN SEEK 8-HOUR SHIFT HERE MONDAY

A letter signed by William Young, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Fire Fighters, was sent to the provincial government, asking that a 24-hour shift be established for an eight-hour day instead of the present 12-hour day.

At the last session of the provincial legislature, an act to amend the Fire Department Act, was passed authorizing the council of any city or town, having a population of 10,000 or more, to establish a fire department, to divide the fire department into three platoons, and to require each member of a platoon to be eight consecutive hours in each day.

The city firemen are asking that the council hold a plioscience on the question in accordance with the act.

At the present time, city firemen work a 16-hour shift while on days and a 12-hour shift at night, making an average of 12½ hours per day.

Shifts alternate every other week. Other civil employees work eight-hour shifts.

Love Letter In Wrong Cover: Romance Starts

WEATHERFORD, Okla., Aug. 14.—For the second year in a row Max Bachman set down to write a couple of letters. One was a message to his sweetheart. The other was an order for a 12-gauge shotgun.

Before long, he received a reply to the love note from the Oklahoma oiler, who said he had intended to buy the shotgun. He liked the letter from the girl so much, he thought, so he answered her. That started a regular correspondence.

Finally Bachman went to Chicago, where he met the girl, and they met the girl. Today they are celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary on a farm here.

In the three years Mr. Bachman has heard nothing more about the order nor the shotgun.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION OVER MONTREAL PORT

MONTREAL, Aug. 14.—Sharp differences of opinion have arisen between a committee of the Montreal board of trade and Hon. C. D. Howe, transport minister, concerning administration of the port of Montreal under the new port authority. Details were disclosed here today.

The board of trade released a report which recommended a committee appointed to study the administration of the local port and the use of transhipment facilities and terminals.

Mr. Howe's office said it was urged that the capitalization of the port be reduced.

Mr. Howe's office pointed out that the present system only justifies itself and I can only see the reason for such a move is founded on the fact that the remittance of those whose demands have not been met by the National Harbors Board.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 14.—Two north Idaho forest fires ejected slowly northeastward toward the timbered shores of Coeur d'Alene Lake and Priest Lake.

A third large blaze which sprang up at the edge of the Colville Indian reservation, was miles northwest of Spokane, was controlled Sunday after it had blackened 1,200 acres.

Thirty miles northeast of Spokane, a small village of Spirit Lake, Idaho, half deserted today, was an island in a smouldering sea of black and fire which left 15 houses standing. All others were moved off toward Pend Oreille Lake, 20 miles to the northeast.

A few hundred men and women from the town of 600 persons were camped in a community park at Rathdrum, Idaho, eight miles to the west.

Shortage of Trained Pilots Holding Back Trans-Canada Airlines

WINNIPEG, Aug. 12.—Shortage of trained pilots is responsible for the delay in extending existing Trans-Canada Air Lines service, Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of transport, said in an interview Saturday.

We would like to double our mid-west schedules, he said, and the first thing we are doing is making toward establishing the Montreal-Halifax leg of the projected De Minimis route.

Favorable progress is being made and at the present time we are waiting for the completion of CALGARY, Aug. 14.—On his way with a chum to the Okanagan Valley, B.C., in search of work in the fruit harvest, Paul Sergerie, 21, from Lethbridge, Alberta, was swimming in a calm Saturday afternoon and drowned in the Bow river as three companions, unable to swim, watched helplessly.

The companions, all transients, are held by city police as material witnesses for an inquest to be held Monday morning. The deceased is Frank Reilly, Andrew Thomson and Roland Picard, all of Montreal.

Reilly, Thomson and Picard had been in the "jungle" about 3 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 11, when Reilly, as he said, swam into the swimming hole by arrangement.

Sergerie could swim, the youths thought, so they let him go alone in the water. The water ranges from four to eight feet deep, with a slight current.

After 15 minutes the men entered the deep water. Sergerie swam out into deep water about 20 feet from the bank, then turned his back to shore. A few feet from the shore in water six feet deep, the young man, who weighed 160 pounds, gave a yell, "Help!" his companions said, and sank immediately. He did not come up again.

"We were helpless," Reilly said. "We tried to get him. We ran the street to another man. He couldn't swim either. Paul didn't know how to swim, either, and we told him to get police while we tried to get Paul."

Park Official Says Leave Rainier Alone

Frown on Raising Peak

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 14.—A National Park official turned thumbs down today on Tacoma Chamber of Commerce plans to raise Rainier 15 feet.

But O. A. Tomlinson, superintendent of Rainier National Park, said the mountain "isn't dead" even though such a mound might restore it to its former place of grandeur.

"While it hurts our pride to have the mountain relegated to fourth place," he said, "we can see no good purpose to build anything on it."

"The National Park Service is bound to let it be scientifically corrected, and to add another 11 feet to the peak would only cause confusion."

National Housing Loan Is Answered Prayer of Modest Income Worker

BY THOMAS WAYLING
EDMONTON BULLETIN STAFF WRITER
OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—The National Housing Act loan is the answering prayer of the modest income workers. Loans for July were 26 per cent above those for June, and 62 per cent above those of the previous year, said J. L. Sibley, of the Acting Minister of Finance, J. L. Sibley.

A total of 866 loans were made in July, and the average for any month to date.

Thirty-one per cent of those loans went to families whose home cost more than $2,500. Many families whose incomes does not afford them the luxury of a house, however, are getting a home under the Dominion Housing Act by paying in monthly payments than they did in month.

Three others suffered injuries but were not seriously hurt, said Capt. Roosevelt seven months ago when he ached or ahead of schedule.

WAR AND A WOMAN

By BETTY WALLACE

CASE OF CHARACTERS
LINDA STORM, tall and thin with her best friend's fiance, THE CANCIA KING, navy girl, lived a life.

JIMMY COOPER, naval flying instructor, had been in Linda's lap in her lap. She turned her face away from him, looked out of the window, then turned back again to the university now. The familiar sky-covered buildings blurred before her eyes. She stepped down the hill, down the tree-shaded street, she saw a figure walking slowly, a tall figure, a little stooped, a trifle heavy.

Yesterday Linda meets Jimmy at the airport, and they are talking, hoping to ease out of his head. Linda has a chance with her big legs to marry him.

"I'm not strong," Linda says. "I'm not strong, I'm not strong," she repeats, thinking of the time when she can't even get out of bed. Linda did not think Jimmy was deep in some corner of his own heart.

"Until you're ready, no matter how long it takes."

"I'll never be ready while you're in the armed service, Jimmy."

He turned his face away from her. She turned her face away from him, looked out of the window, then turned back again to the university now. The familiar sky-covered buildings blurred before her eyes.

BUSTLES are fashion news now, men in your family—become alarmed at the thought that you will look like a portrait of grandmother next winter, comparing these two photographs should allay your suspicions. They prove beyond a doubt that 1890's bustle is a creation, adaptations rather than copies of the bustles of the 1880's.

The Gay Nineies gone, above, is a bustle waist bustle affair of faille and lace. The bustle goes on separately. Left, it is modern counterpart, designed by Marie Berger, also combining faille and lace. The bustle effect is achieved by a huge bow of the latter fabric.

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
Here's a dish that begins the greeves. Buy your pickle jars and your large glass jars, then go home and follow this recipe for a relish that will stir up your appetite.

CRUNCHY CUKES

One-half cup cider vinegar, 4 cups dill pickles cut into 1/4 inch pieces, 1/2 cup mixed pickle slices, 2 1/2 cups sugar.

Use a large crock or deep dish. Pour vinegar into the bottom of the crock or dish. Mix dill pickle slices with spices and add to vinegar.

Lastly, add sugar but do not stir it in. Let it sit until it has time to soak in all its own free will.

Cover crock and leave unopened for 24 hours. Then add the large, sterilized glass jars and seal.

Every housewife enjoys seeing a recipe card that she has never seen before. This one is no exception. It is not only delicious, but it makes a grand "conversation piece" for social get-togethers.

ONION PINEAPPLE RELISH

(Yields about 3 pints)

Four cups ground onions, 2 large onions minced, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup vinegar, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 quart vinegar.

Wash onions thoroughly; cook until thick, about 1 hour.

Pour into hot sterilized glass jars and seal.

CORN AT ITS BEST
The sooner sweet corn is cooked after it is gathered from the garden, the better its flavor. But overcooking ruins the taste of corn. Five to seven minutes in boiling, unsalted water, in a covered kettle, will bring out the tender corn. For matured ears, ten minutes should be sufficient, and since moisture in the corn is apt to be too wet, add a little sugar to the boiling water.

The first treatment consisted in the patient avaying any contact with the irritating plants. If it is desired to communicate directly with the doctor, he can be reached at his office, 1025 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

The explanation was finally arrived at. The patient had been suffering from hay fever in one person and not in another because they have an abnormal sensitivity to substances not affecting the average person.

Mary farmer here fervently writes in to tell how delighted they were to remain free from hay fever by trying this method. Do not give up hope of relieving your hay fever problem. At least give this method a trial.

Raising A Family

I get letters from all over asking for suggestions on giving presents for children. They're easy to answer. I think something like this: "The children are so-and-so old. They love riddles and they love looking for things. On the other hand, the younger ones are more active and the older ones are less active. Why not have them all come together and let the older ones act as costumers or have them act as mothers? Perhaps just a pair of overalls and a big bow tie."

For girls, O.R. Boles says they simply want to look nice, different. Tissue paper dresses are easy to make. And the more ribbons the better.

No child will ever enjoy a party more than a birthday party. Practically nothing. The big thing, therefore, is to keep the company of the birthday child. Once the house seats upon that, the party practically ends.

In the winter, birthday parties are coming fast. Strange how the imaginations of children take the birthday in heart to something more important than the date of Phil's or Phoebe's birthday or their own.

Whether the honor guest is five or fifteen, it seems that color is the thing that makes the background of the party. And the more brightly decorated paper napkins, covers, plates and cups as pretty as you possibly can.

Youngsters love color.

HAVE EVERYBODY

And the games. They are playful, simple, everyone can play. And the more fun the games are the more fun they are in these days and it was really that he was the best chance for a bit of dalliance on the part of the men.

If men and women did the same kind of horse-trading in business as they do in marriage, there would be a lot more fun.

Whether we get along about as we say to trying it?"

Now would my man treat Venus Jane in the affair if she told him frankly that he lacked about 100 pounds? And when she got up to her dress man and said that the first thing she was going to do if she married him was to make him over, she was right. Venus Jane was scarce in these days and it was really that he was the best chance for a bit of dalliance on the part of the men.

Well, "Well, Sarah, you are a treat to the eyes and your disposition is nothing to brag about, but your looks are not bad either."

It is a good idea to have a good cook. I think that if we get married we will get along about as we say to trying it?"

And when she got up to her dress man and said that the first thing she was going to do if she married him was to make him over, she was right. Venus Jane was scarce in these days and it was really that he was the best chance for a bit of dalliance on the part of the men.

Well, "Well, Sarah, you are a treat to the eyes and your disposition is nothing to brag about, but your looks are not bad either."

It is a good idea to have a good cook. I think that if we get married we will get along about as we say to trying it?"

Now would my man treat Venus Jane in the affair if she told him frankly that he lacked about 100 pounds? And when she got up to her dress man and said that the first thing she was going to do if she married him was to make him over, she was right. BUSINESS IS STABLE SAYS COMPANY MAN

Goodyear Tire and Rubber Officials on West Inspection Tour

Canadian business has "an element of stability" in its present position, that is a happy situation at the moment, says Mr. C. Berkshin, New Toronto, general manager and treasurer of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., Ltd., and son.

Accompanied by R. W. Richards, Toronto, sales manager, Mr. Berkshin came to Edmonton Monday night by plane from Calgary, after spending a week in the west, is now on an inspection tour of Western Canada and is returning home after a visit to the Pacific coast.

Analysis of business factors in the Dominion, he said, shows that business shows that business has increased about five per cent over last year's figures, and that is a good sign as far as a corresponding period in 1937.

Pointing out that 1937 was in some aspects a boom year, he said, "we have run slightly ahead of it." Mr. Berkshin said, "I don't think it may be that our business is not making so 'spectacular' a gain as its progress may for that reason, but it is steady."

Sales of Goodyear goods in Alberta are as high as in other provinces and this is as big a proportion of the market here, he said.

Asked if his company was engaged now in the manufacture of rubber tires for military purposes, he said, "not yet. There might be uses in war, Mr. Berkshin said, and some work was being done in this field now, but not much."

TO CO-OP RATE

He added the facilities of the company's plant had been placed at the disposal of the co-operative, and it was ready to co-operate should emergency conditions arise.

Business in Canada will improve, he suggested. If people paid less attention to war scares and more to their own problems in Canada.

Periodic visits by eastern Canadian business men, as well as from the west, east, were lauded by the visiting executive as a means of understanding the diversity of problems facing Canada.

First vice-president of the Toronto and vice-chairman of the board of directors, Mr. Berkshin will leave Tuesday for Saskatchewan. He is at the Macdonald.

Civic Officers Conferring Here On Relief Pack

Major Andrew Davison of Calgari was here yesterday for a test meeting of civic officials of Edmonton and Calgary and officials of the provincial government to discuss the relief pack which was signed by the provincial and federal governments last week.

Meeting to discuss the pact was underway Monday morning in the office of the city's relief commissioners. Representing the city are Acting Mayor Al Gruenwald, Councillor J. H. McRae, John Hodson and H. F. McRae, city relief manager.

Official delegations made statements prior to the meeting and said that there might be any statement to release after the meeting is concluded.

Bettors Enjoy Fine Weather At Races Here

Five weeks provided over the last week-end as thousands of citizens took to the open road, round the hills and through the surrounding Edmonton. Swimming pools, parks and golf courses also claimed their share of the weather as visitors to the metropolis shot up to 38,712.

The horses of the bandit drivers had their hands full yesterday Saturday as the fall race meet at the Exhibition Grounds got underway. One horse, a 10-year-old gelding, squirmed which departed 40 inches over the ground and ripped the top off of a 20 yard dash—100 feet apart. The horse, a male Standard-bred, started from a black horse, the latter having the fastest time of 12.7 seconds.

Temperature Saturday reached a high of 81 degrees.

Warm weather is forecast for Monday which fast to delight visitors to the racing track, including the "big top" during the day.

"We thought it was a good idea to have the picnic in Victoria Park because it is a very nice park, even back in 1907, but it has surprised us in every way."

Miners Injured

Two miners, Peter Collins, 37, of Suite 8, Warwick apartments, and P. C. Richardson, 37, of 1008 10th Street, were slightly injured in a fall of rock at the Bush Mine near Bevins early Sunday afternoon. Both were working in the mine when the fall of the competition was Mrs. Jack Johnson, who kept right on meeting members of the gathering until she was carried to the hospital where she was soon joined by her husband, Mr. Berkshin, who had been appointed Madam Jewel.

FIRE RIDES

One of the most popular attractions of the annual picnic was the several fire-boat parades which the company brought to the park so that the younger ones might have fun riding in the boats. The highlight of the competition was Madam Jewel's. A special prize was awarded to the luckiest passenger in the boat. Another highlight in the competition was Mrs. Jack Johnson, who kept right on meeting members of the gathering until she was carried to the hospital where she was soon joined by her husband, Mr. Berkshin, who had been appointed Madam Jewel.

ACREAGE BONUS WEST BENEFIT TAGGART SAYS

Operating for the first time this year, the Dominion government's "acreage bonus" will confer benefits on Saskatchewan farmers according to G. E. Taggart, Saskatchewan minister of agriculture, who was a guest at the Macdonald Institute yesterday.

While here, Mr. Taggart hopes to confer with Hon. D. B. Mullen, Alberta minister of agriculture, concerning licensing of live-stock dealers for farmers' protection.

He claimed that Alberta would draw benefits from the Dominion government plan, although not as in Saskatchewan because the province's acreage under cultivation and the much greater degree of crop damage in Saskatchewan.

Ministerial taxes on 14 Edmonton homes built for their present owners since June 1, 1938, under terms of the National Housing Act have been paid by the Dominion government for 1939, it was reported Saturday by the city assessor's department. The ministerial tax implications for tax assistance under this plan have been forwarded to Ottawa. Under the act, each tax paid on the first year affects such tax aid as a straight gift by Ottawa for any house in Canada costing not more than $4,000, but not exceeding occupancy of its owner at any time between June 1, 1938 and Dec. 31, 1940. The ministerial tax on 14 Edmonton homes, the city set aside 200 residential lots for sale at a low figure.

Rev. J. H. Skene B.A., Toronto, who has been guest speaker at First Presbyterian Church for the past six weeks, left for Toronto Monday morning.

Col. C. H. King, Ottawa, assistant commissioner in charge of administration of the RCMP, was in Edmonton Monday on a periodic inspection trip.

Explanation of the system of voting in force in provincial elections was explained by the Optimist Club, Mount Pleasant, Edmonton, provincial president of the C.C.P., at its meeting in the Macdonald.

The famous clock in London is often erroneously called "Big Ben" is not named at all. The name of the tower is "Elizabeth Tower," and it is the bell inside the tower which is named "Big Ben." So it is Big Ben which is heard, but it is not Big Ben which is seen.

World-Wide News Pictures By The Edmonton Bulletin Cameramen

Trans-Atlantic Plane Arrived In Montreal

This picture shows the Imperial Airways seaplane Caribou riding at anchor at Boucherville, near Montreal, on arrival from Britain en route to New York inaugurating the first British mail flight.

Purse Guard

Sole woman state treasurer in United States—and Idaho has liked Mrs. Martha B. Enking so well she has been found here. Now a new-headed-family believes Mrs. Enking has a 27-year-old son, University of Idaho graduate.

This Is No Pleasure Craft

Here is one of the many new torpedo boats ordered for the British navy, the fastest of their kind afloat. The boat is reported to have a speed of 44 knots, and is designed to carry two torpedo tubes and gear for dropping depth charges. This picture was taken during trials a few days ago at Southampton, with members of parliament and other distinguished observers aboard.

Canuck Actor In Hollywood

Prince At Seaside

Beauties

Joyce Claxton, "Miss London," at left, and Andre Lorraine, "Miss Atlantic," in the Miss Universe contest, received a silver cup on liner Normandie, on which he returned to America. Above, the father, Fred Snell, Sr., shows him the trophy.

Will Church Cave In?

That yawning, 33-foot-square hole in front of Presbyterian church at Halleystown, Okla., is worrying clergymen and congregation. It's another cave-in of old mine timbers which fell through once before, in 1928, damaging city hall and YMCA building.

He's a Bit of Alright!

For being the only passenger who didn't lose a point in chess competition, because he didn't play, Fred Snell, Jr., American "King" in the Miss Universe contest, received a silver cup on liner Normandie, on which he returned to America. Above, the father, Fred Snell, Sr., shows him the trophy.

Hitler Booster

Showing his surprise as the cameraman catches him unaware, Andreas Meissner, who hates to be photographed, is pictured in Budapest. Member of the Hungarian Parliament, an ardent pro-Nazi and close friend of Adolf Hitler, he recently negotiated large barter deals with Germany.

Bon Voyage—Mr. Dunning

Taking with him the hearty wishes of all Canada for a speedy and complete recovery, Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Federal minister of finance, sailed to spend an extended vacation in Europe. Following

Gargantua—Only One Of His Kind

Only animal of its kind in captivity and one of the world's wonders, Gargantua the Great, big African gorilla, who although only young in years, is one of the largest, toughest and strongest animals yet seen, is making a record of the wonders of the swinging Box and Barricade and Harley Comedic Shows which arrive in Edmonton on Sunday afternoon to play two Monday engagements in this city.

Such a youngster that he is still double, Gargantua is one of the pets of the animal men, but they never take chances. He is a powerful pachyderm, weighing more than 1,000 pounds, has a playful temperament, slaps people and "death walls." Gargantua is always one of the biggest drawing cards of the all-star shows and now he is in town again, he is the most popular act in his cage at the costest when invariably paid around him.

Flying Fort Shrinks Continent

Dramatically illustrating the advance in aviation, 22 tons of meat in the shape of a U.S. Army "Flying Fortress" roared 2,500 miles across the country, from Burbank, Cal., to New York, in nine hours and 14½ minutes. Thus setting a new army record. Photo above shows the record-making plane in Floyd Bennett Field after the trip.

Looking Them Over

The West's Day
Jockey Fund
Grid Rally

REMEMBER the days back many a year when horses bred in the east and on U.S. soil used to take away practically all of western Canada's purse money? When western thoroughbreds were scarce and not exactly the winning type? When the men who talked of establishing the breeding industry on the prairies were considered locoed?

Saturday's opening program of fast racing here could well be marked down as a day when the western thoroughbreds finally came into their own with fine sweep of power and speed that was every race on the card.

Fort Saskatchewan Handicap, feature of the program, was won by Canadian, trained by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cayley, Alberta. Craig Token, winner in the great mud and thundering Trotton Purse was bred by Erik Lund at Breden, Saskatchewan.

Two winners of the card were raised at Calgary, Bobby Thomas by Mrs. E. Layzell and Chief Richey by Miss Ruth Layzell. Two others, Tabbie and Mr. S. H. Smith, were bred in British Columbia. The former comes from the stock formed of F. B. Stotes at Northfield, while the latter was raised by W. C. Arnett of Vancouver.

Pool Proposed For Jockeys

WHEN Jockey Walter South was killed in a spill at Laramie Park the other day, a few permanent and fortunate fans ridges were brought home painlessly to Pacific Coast racing fans.

South had no insurance, very little if any money—and a wife and three children. He had no insurance because a jockey can't get it. His widow, however, is in a position to write to insurance firms to want him as a policy holder and from the way he has it handled his family can be kept alive to a ripe old age.

So they have started a public fund to help South's widow and children. The Vancouver Racers Association started it off with $500. Sam Randall came in with $100 and the public a few cents each to do its part.

The Vancouver Racers Association is in a spiritual situation that makes a public subscription necessary. It takes the stand that organized racing should provide for a death or permanent injury to riders on whom to a large extent the success of the business depends. Hospital and medical bills are generally taken care of for an injured jockey, but at present there is no fund to care of his dependents if he is killed or at present to provide him for a ripe old age.

The Sun advances the opinion that this deserves 14 days of racing in Canada, for permanent and temporary injuries extra day dormitory, all profits go into a benefit fund for racers.

That would certainly build up a responsible fund, but the plan involves so many legal and technical difficulties that it is not likely to be acceptable. Longspur has outlined the same need for a benefit fund and proposes to start one by taking every next purse.

Longspur has outlined the same need for a benefit fund and proposes to start one by taking every next purse.

It is fair, each of the racing committees would contribute. The public could be taxed by means of an extra mule on each race, by asking charge, owners by a per race tax, and the track and trackside by asking a percentage of what they make from the game. There will probably be more gain getting the government to contribute than anyone can visualize for the time being you can't expect that. However, the public can't afford to take a hand in this.

The proposal is one that the Western Thoroughbred Breeders Association should make a point of bringing up, for discussion, at its next annual meeting. That may appear to be too logical a start to the ball rolling and adenose the fund.

From Grid and Links

THERE will be another big football rally in the Masonic Temple on Wednesday of this week at 8:30 p.m. when amateur pictures will again be the feature attraction. This time the movies are the Winning Bombers' collection of films taken at all amateur games in which these players last season. This collection has been won by the Elks. Green Bay Prints will be available on the premises, explaining the plays and pointing out where and when to see them.

When the 1938 Alberta Open golf championship begins at Mayfair on September 2, Pat Fletcher, assistant pro at Mayfair, is certain to be one of the hot favorites in a starry field. A week ago he equalled the course record of 66—four under par, then the other day he went out and fired a 67! Lloyd Greer, Lorne Morris and N. Groat were playing with him at the time. He shot seven birdies, did the first nine holes in 30 and under par and second nine in two under.

C. Thompson, another Mayfair club member, posted a card in the exclusive High-In-One corner of the bulletin board last week when he took his tee shot on the 180-yard ninth—a par three pitch and putt. Bob Thompson, H. Ellingsworth and Archie Muir are witnesses that he did the trick.
